

Voluntary Consent

Federal Energy Regulatory Commission regulations require that PSE&G post Voluntary Consent communications where an unaffiliated transmission customer consents, in writing, to allow the Transmission Provider to share its customer information with the Transmission Provider's Energy Affiliate. There are currently no Voluntary Consent communications.